

Suffolk Volunteering Federation

“Volunteers and the Law”

The course will enable those who are responsible for working with or managing volunteers to understand all aspects of current legislation as it affects volunteering and to enable those who are considering taking on volunteers for the first time to examine management implications for their own organisation.

It will provide

- an understanding of how current legislation has implications for volunteers and volunteer involving organisations
- knowledge of good practice recommendations relating to the management of volunteers

Further details of the course content can be found at www.volunteeringsuffolk.org.uk

This training will be held on:

Wednesday 22nd July 2009 from 9.30am until 2.30pm at Capel St Mary Village Hall, The Street, Capel St Mary IP9 2EP

Funding from Suffolk County Council Neighbourhood Learning enables this training to be offered free of charge to all participants.

Refreshments will be provided but participants are requested to bring their own lunch

✂ -----

“Volunteers and the Law”

Name:

Organisation:

Contact tel. no/e-mail:

Please book me places on this training

Do you have any access requirements?

YES / NO

Details, please?

Please return this form by post to:

Ruth Kemp
Babergh Communities Together
The Christopher Centre, 10 Gainsborough Street, Sudbury, Suffolk, CO10 2EU
Tel. 0845 370 6340

or by email to:

info@bct Suffolk.org.uk